

Hub Information Volunteer Position

We invite you to share your gifts and talents with local seniors and their caregivers as a Hub Information Volunteer in exchange for heart-felt appreciation and the knowledge that you will be making a positive impact for seniors in Campbell River.

The Seniors Information Hub is a new project, and it is the first of its kind in the region. The Hub will be a reliable information service that will assist seniors, families, caregivers, and all community members with their information needs in a way that engages them and builds knowledge and confidence.

Starting Date: March 2021

The hours for this position are flexible and will be for approximately 6 – 9 hours per month for shifts of 3 hours each. The role will be based out of the office of Volunteer Campbell River and at other locations in the Campbell River area. This is an ideal role for the savvy senior.

If two or more of these describe you, we would love to hear from you!

- YOU are interested in, or have knowledge of, local seniors services
- YOU are a people person and genuine passion for helping others
- YOU are patient and know how to 'listen to understand'
- YOU are comfortable connecting with people on the phone as well as in person
- YOU have a knack for filling out forms & willing to teach others
- YOU value inclusivity and are respectful of diversity
- YOU feel comfortable using computers
- YOU are open hearted, non-judgmental and see the good in others

A bit more about the role:

This role is all about one-on-one connecting, informing and supporting seniors, their family caregivers and the community with their informational needs. A large percentage of time will be understanding their needs, providing contact information for relevant organizations, and assisting with forms. Training will be provided in March and in April the Hub will be open/accessible to the public.
